Welcome!

Thank you for considering Cheery Bird Vintage for your genealogy research needs.

My name is Larissa and I'm the chief genealogist here.

I'm thrilled by the prospect of working together to uncover the rich tapestry of your family's history.

Before we delve into the services I offer, let me share a little bit about my approach to genealogy.

I believe in the power of stories to connect, enlighten, and enrich. My mission is to help you discover and preserve your family's unique narrative, piecing together the past to bring new understanding and appreciation to your heritage.

I'm here to be your guide through the intricate maze of historical records and ancestral tales, ensuring that your family's legacy is not just uncovered but also beautifully presented and cherished.

Getting Started

When you choose me to research your family history, you're not just hiring a research service; you're getting a dedicated partner. I'm committed to comprehensively understanding your family's history and customizing my approach to perfectly match your research goals.

I'll use my expertise in genealogical research, historical context, and storytelling to transform your family's past into a captivating narrative that resonates across generations.

Ready to rediscover your roots and celebrate the extraordinary stories that make you who you are?

Let's embark on this exciting journey together to ensure your family's history is not just revealed, but preserved for future generations.

Thank you once again for your interest in Cheery Bird Vintage. We eagerly anticipate the opportunity to work with you, bringing the stories of your ancestors to life and honoring your family's legacy.

Unearthing Your Family's Legacy

I've crafted a comprehensive, step-by-step approach to ensure that each aspect of your genealogical quest is handled with the utmost precision and respect.

FREE

INITIAL 30-MINUTE CONSULTATION

A preliminary discussion (free) to understand your goals, available information, and specific areas of interest.

Based on the information you provide, I'll determine the feasibility of the research and establish a basic research direction.

INITIAL RESEARCH PACKAGE

Using the information provided by you during our initial consultation, I'll conduct preliminary research (2 hours). I use online databases, public records, and other accessible resources.

Upon completing this initial research, I'll create a report summarizing my findings, including any relevant data and suggestions for further research.

I'll email my report to you, along with digital copies of any documents or other records discovered.

$45/HOUR

CONTINUING RESEARCH

Ready to dig deeper into your family history or need a helping hand getting unstuck in your own research? I can help!

We'll meet to discuss your specific objectives or challenges with prior research conducted. During this meeting, we'll also set a budget (i.e., maximum number of hours).

Similar to the Initial Research Package, I'll email you a report summarizing my findings, including any relevant data and suggestions for further research.

You'll also receive digital copies of any documents or other records discovered.

Research Report Composition

My commitment to delivering a comprehensive and detailed exploration of your family history is evidenced by my meticulously crafted research reports.

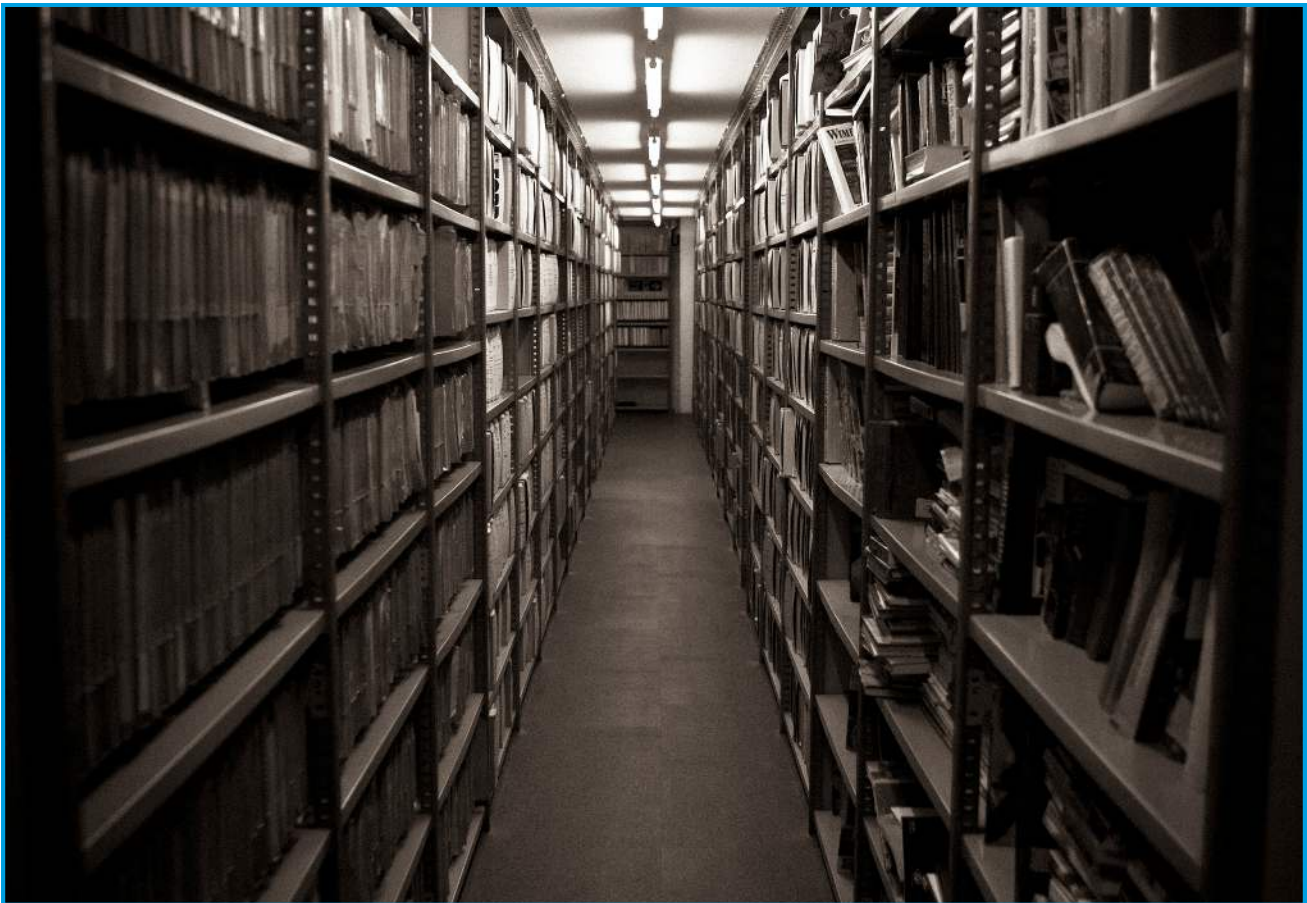

What you can expect in your report:

- Research log & list of sources consulted Your journey through the past is chronicled in a research log, detailing every step taken and source consulted. This log serves as a transparent and informative guide through the research process.
- Relevant documents in digital format I bring history to your fingertips by providing digital copies of pertinent documents. Whether they are photos, scans of original records, or other significant artifacts, these documents form the backbone of your family's narrative.
- Expense report (if applicable) If any additional costs are incurred during the research process, a detailed expense report will be included in your report. This ensures transparency and accountability in every aspect of my service. Note: All potential additional expenses will be discussed with you before they are incurred and require your written approval.

- Recommendations for future research I'll offer thoughtful recommendations and suggestions for further exploration, highlighting potential next steps and additional areas to explore to gain deeper insights into your family history.

Follow-Up and Additional Research

The conclusion of one chapter often marks the beginning of another. At Cheery Bird Vintage, my relationship with you doesn't end with the delivery of a report. I am committed to continuing this journey with you, should you wish to delve deeper.

Continuing Your Genealogical Journey:

- Post-report discussion After you've reviewed the initial findings, I invite you to discuss the report with me. This is a valuable opportunity to reflect on the discoveries and consider what intriguing paths to explore next.
- Tailored research plan adjustments Based on your feedback and any new objectives that emerge, I'm prepared to adjust the research plan. Whether it's pursuing a newfound lead or exploring an untouched branch of your family tree, my approach is flexible and responsive to your evolving interests.
- Commitment to deeper discovery My promise is to remain dedicated to uncovering the depths of your ancestry. With every step forward, I aim to provide richer, more detailed insights, connecting you more closely with your past.
